The Proprietors of the Commonwealth, grateful Lexington. for the generous patronage which has been bestowed upon them, are determined to furnish their patrons a journal which shall be unexcelled in any of the departments which comprise a first class

Published at the Capital of the State, it will be enabled to furnish its readers with the latest intelligence of the actions of the higher courts and of the various departments of the State. It will also contain the latest telegraphic news of stiring events, and also of the New York, Cincinnati, Louisville and New Orleans markets.

In politics the Commonwealth will be conservative, occupying a middle and antagonistic ground in reference to the two extremes. The old parties broken up, and old issues virtually dead, the vital question at present is Union or disunion. The Commonwealth is for the Union, believing it to be the greatest safeguard for our rights, as well as our most effective auxiliary in our efforts to obtain redress for our wrongs. Its conductors do not regard disunion as a remedy for any of the wrongs of the South, but rather an aggravation. It will contend for the equality of the States in the Union, and for the absolute non-interference by Congress with the domestic affairs of the States and Territories.

We shall aim to make the Commonwealth an acceptable and appropriate fireside companion. It will contain selections from the choicest literature of the day, prose, poetry, &c. The WEEKLY will be printed on extra double medium paper, in new and beautiful type. Terms, in advance, for the Tri-Weekly, $4 per been prepared with unusual diligence and care by the author, is intended to be a complete and perfect guide to Justices of the Peace, and the other officers named above, in the discharge of their respective duties under the laws of the state. Its arrangement is such, that while it presents to the officer a full view of the law which he may be called upon to enforce, whether civil or oriminal, it affords him such complete and accurate instructions as to the practical manner of discharging his duties, in each particular case, that it will be almost impossible for the least informed among them to go astray.

Every necessary form which a justice of the peace, or other officer may require in the course of his official duties, will be found in its appropriate place in the work; and the instructions are so full, perspicuous and clear, that it will be found an invaluable official companion to those for whom the treatise is intended, and a highly useful work to the legal profession, and all others having busness with those officers. The author has spared no labor to make it just such a work as is now most needed by the class of officers whose duties are so fully and clearly explained, and his well known accuracy and success will commend it to the hearty patronage of all persons in Kentucky concerned in the administration of the law.

CLINTON MCCLARTY, H. R.

COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY. Executive Department.

Gentlemen of the House of Representatives: Three different series of resolutions, adopted by your honorable body, asking information touching subjects of public interest, are before me. Several of these resolutions cover the same point of inquiry, and they are all so nearly connected in purpose and character as to enable me, without impropriety, to embody in one reply all the information I have to communicate.

There has been no official correspondence between myself, or any authorized agent, and the President of the Confederate States or any officer, agent, or commissioner of said President or government.

No requisition has been made upon Kentucky for troops by any officer of the Confederate States.

In this connection I deem it proper to mention, that on or about the 22d ult., I received a telegraphic note, dated Montgomery, Alabama, and signed L. P. Walker, Secretary of War. In that note Mr. Walk-er expressed the belief, based upon my pre-vious response to the requisition of the United States Government, that our people were prepared to unite in repelling the common enemy of the South, recited the fact that Virginia needed our aid, and requested me to send one regiment to rendezvous at Harper's Ferry, without delay. I promptly and in the fewest words, declined to comply with the request. Manifestly I could have made no other reply. As the Governor of the State, I had no authority in the premises, and I did not for a moment regard the request of Mr. Walker as an official communication, so far as my Executive functions were involved. The notes were in terchanged during my visit to Louisville, were not held to be of an official character, and no copies were preserved. The original ment and the Confederate States, the Commonwealth of Kentucky, as you are well aware, was almost entirely defenseless. The posed stopping of the trips of the steamer vigorous measures instituted by the Presi- Cheney by the citizens of this place is dent of the United States for the overthrow of the Confederate States Government, and that subject is confined entirely to what the reduction of the people of the seceded they regard as an unauthorized detention of States to submissive allegiance to his admin- that steamer under your authority at Cairo istration, at once aroused the wildest excite- It is to be regretted that you felt authorized, ment in the non-slaveholding States; and created the most imminent danger of law less invasion of our soil by the people of the contiguous States on the North. Not only was civil war inaugurated, but for a time it seemed that the populace of the Northern States would not await the authorized direction and organization of their hostilities. In the midst of this mighty convulsion Kentucky stood unarmed and defenseless, her soil unprotected from hostile invasion, and her citizens exposed to any assult which the mad fanaticism of the hour might suggest. From every section of the State came up to me the most urgent appeals for arms. My table was covered with earnest petitions of loyal citizens, asking from their State the means of self-protection. No time was to be lost. Every day of delay increased the difficulties of procuring arms and munitions It was manifest none could be procured from the North. As communicated to you in my recent message, I did then assume the responsibility of dispatching agents to the points I thought most available, with instructions to make known the posture of our State, and the defenseless condition of its people, and, if possible, purchase arms.

I authorized and employed Dr. Luke P. Blackburn, of the city of Louisville, to proceed to the States of Arkansas and Louisiana, and instructed him, first, to explain to the Governors of those States the position of Kentucky as being an attitude of strict selfdefense, to make known our defenseless situation, and then to contract for the most effective arms and munitions upon the best terms he could arrange. That I may be clearly understood, I mention here that about the same time, in pursuance to the line of policy I had adopted for the maintenance of peace and the prevention of any collision along our Northern border, I accredited Gen. S. B. Buckner an agent to pro ceed to Indianapolis and Jefferson City, with instructions to explain to the Governors of the 29th ultimo, in company with Senator realize the fact that secession is destruction those States the position of Kentucky. DAILY SESSION COMMONWEALTH.

If any person should pay for a longer time than the session continues, the Tri-weekly Commonwealth will be sent long enough to

The TRI-WEEKLY COMMONWEALTH is published at Four Dollars per year, or FORTY CENTS per month.

The WEEKLY COMMONWEALTH is Two Dollars per year.

The DAILY COMMONWEALTH can be had at the counting-room at FIVE CENTS per single copy, or at THREE DOLLARS per hundred. Orders should be left at the office, or with the reporters, on the day before the publication of the particular number of the paper which is wanted.

The Yeoman of Saturday has a succession of duck fits about Lincoln's blockade of the Louisville and Nashville railroad. It repeatedly and frantically ask, "shall we submit to this hostile war measure?"

Now "this hostile war measure," (we re gret that it was not a friendly "war measure,") consists simply in instructions contained in a general circular, addressed to all custom house officers, of course including the one at Louisville. There is not a single United States soldier at Louisville, nor is it in contemplation by the General Government to send one there during the present status of publicaffairs. So the great question is "shall we submit" to the circular of the Secretary of State? We should like to occupy a neutral ground. The Yeoman will not submit; so we may expect a bloody battle between that newspaper and Chase's paper circular.

If we don't submit, what then? Shall we bounce into that circular and tear it up, or how? Tell us, good Yeoman. Don't excite our passions, and raise our patiotism to the highest point, without suggesting some means giving it vent.

CONDITION OF THE NAVY-THE BLOCKADING FORCE.—The following ships are now nearly ready for sea:

The blockading force under Capt. Stringham will consist of at least fifty war vessels, accompanied by sufficient steam transports for the accommodation of a land force 20,-000 strong. Thus it will prove sufficient to make an efficient blockade of any inlet on the Southern coast into which any vessel drawing six feet of water might otherwise

JOHN RODMAN, Esq,-The praise of this gentleman is on the tongue of every Union man in the Legislature. effectual Alierative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Para Sarsapavilla, a concentrated extract of Para Sarsaparilla, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effective antidote for the diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow-citizens. How completely this compound will citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found of the following complaints: -

SCHOFULA AND SCROFULOUS COMPLAINTS, ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEEM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AF-FECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEU RALGIA OR TIC DOULOUREUX, DEBILITY, DYS-PEPSIA AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, ROSE OR ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF

This compound will be found a great pronoter of health, when taken in the spring, expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the time-ly expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bud. Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to de this through the natural channels of the bod by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out th vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, cruptions, or sores; cleanse it when you find it is obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse whenever it is foul, and your feelings will te you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this pabulum of life disordered, there can be no asting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.

Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation of accomplishing these ends. Bu the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the dra alone has not all the virtue that is claim. or it, but more because many prepara contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or any thing else.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for rilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence, bitter and painful disappointmen has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly despised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall researe the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have ground for elieving it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intend ed to cure. In order to secure their completeradication from the system, the remedy shoul be judiciously taken according to directions of
